

All wines served at Suburban Social are sourced from sustainable Australian winemakers. We work with growers who value the importance of quality viticulture to avoid the use of any additions. All of our wines are made using minimal sulphites; in most cases only the tiniest amount is used at bottling so as to minimise the risk of oxidation. We do this to offer the best wines available without it being at the expense of the land they come from.

Sparkling

2017 Alejandro Prosecco
Riverland, NSW

Glass $9
Bottle $45

The 2017 Alejandro Prosecco is the color of pale green straw and is lightly but uniquely aromatic. A dry wine but enough sugar to fill the palate, the wine can be consumed as an aperitif or as a session wine.

2015 Spring Vale Sparkling Brut
Freycinet Coast, TAS

Glass $13
Bottle $60

Comprises 72% Pinot Noir, 23% Chardonnay and 5% Pinot Meunier. The aromas show fresh strawberry and lemon zest with an underlying bouquet of vanilla and sour dough. Fresh berry fruit and sorbet give some sweetness to the palate which is nicely balanced with Granny Smith apple, leading to a dry, savoury finish. A classic aperitif sparkling.

White Wine

2017 Rolf Binder Eden Valley Riesling
Eden Valley, SA

Glass $10
Bottle $45

Riesling from the Eden Valley is an elixir for the soul for it has texture, length and a lick of sweetness cut with some requisite zesty acidity. More regional expression and lift come from florals of citrus blossom and roses with a hint of baked quince and some lemon-lime juiciness.

2017 Harvest Sauvignon Blanc
Adelaide Hills, SA

Glass $10
Bottle $45

Harvest is a grower co-op project and this is a wistfully simple wine for good times, sitting alongside the typical bright fruit bowl aromas this grape variety is known for. You will find a more balanced savory, herbaceous style with a hint of texture providing interest and tactility.

2017 Alejandro Pinot Gris
Riverland, NSW

Glass $11
Bottle $50

Pinot Gris grapes are brown to pink to dark red, not white - which is why this wine is Strawberry to copper in appearance with ripe red apple and pear flavors. A full-bodied palate produced from ripe fruit and a wild high solids ferment, this minimally handled wine is a great food white.

2017 Unico Zelo "Riversand" Fiano
Waikerie, Riverland, SA

Glass $12
Bottle $50

A metres worth of sand sitting atop limestone-rich clay gives these vines an incredibly healthy ground to stretch their roots and thrive in the saline rich environment and delivers a Fiano with richness, svelte texture and a beautiful bouquet of pineapple and fresh basil.

White Wine (continued)

2017 Allandale Chardonnay
Hunter Valley, NSW

Glass $11
Bottle $50

Stone fruit, fig and toasty oak aromas on the nose follow through onto the palate while maturation on yeast lees adds body and complexity. The lingering finish is dry, balanced and fresh.

Rosé

2018 Unico Zelo Magnifique Rosé
Adelaide Hills, SA

Glass $10
Bottle $45

This wine was put together by the cellar crew at Unico Zelo. The grapes are Fiano, Nero and Sauvignon Blanc, but that's not really the point.

In the glass, it's a bright peach shade. Red fruits, watermelon, nectarine and a sprinkling of spice entertain the nostrils. While in the mouth it's super juicy with fresh pomegranate and cherry flavors laced with delicate notes of grapefruit. Delish!

Red Wine

2016 Quartier Pinot Noir
Mornington Peninsula, VIC

Glass $11
Bottle $50

Vibrant and deeply scented nose of raspberry and red cherry along with intriguing aromas of wet rock and dark spices. The silky palate offers bramble fruit flavours and a moreish midpalate sweetness that is balanced with fine tannins, great length and a touch of whole bunch spiciness on the finish.

2017 Bellwether Tempranillo
Wrattonbully, SA

Glass $11
Bottle $50

Tempranillo has shown itself as a great variety in Wrattonbully, aromatic, earthy & bright. This vineyard is 20 years old and delivers a wonderful example of how good Tempranillo can be grown in a mature vineyard.

2015 Rolf Binder Shiraz
Barossa Valley, SA

Glass $10
Bottle $45

This deep blood red wine fills the glass with aromas reminiscent of rich red berries and dark bitter chocolate. Dark cherries enhanced with cassis, anise and pepper mingle on the medium to full bodied palate. Creamy tannins and complex acidity lend to the overall perception of a smooth, rich red wine, with a nice persistence of flavour.

Red Wine (Continued)

2017 Unico Zelo Cherry Fields Dolcetto
Clare Valley, SA

Glass $10
Bottle $45

Known as the 'little sweet one' in its homeland - although all the Dolcetto crafted there are most definitely dry. It's the impression of fruit sweetness (or juiciness) that gives an effect of confection - smells sweet, tastes dry. This cheeky Dolcetto is no different - an aromatic, bright and tight little dry red that's absolutely perfect drinking (rather quickly) during those cool winter nights, when whites just don't cut the mustard.

2016 Ottelia Cabernet Sauvignon
Coonawarra, SA

Glass $11
Bottle $50

With fruit sourced from four vineyards in Coonawarra to achieve a full flavoured and structured wine. The wine is 93% Cabernet Sauvignon and 7% Merlot.

Berry fruits, ripe cherry, dark chocolate and liquorice aromas with some cedar nuance, subtle varietal lift and background French oak, with generous mid palate weight and good length. Fruit and oak tannins are both textural and enhancing.
